DISCLOSURE STATEMENTS TO USE AS FIRST SLIDE IN PGS-MN PRESENTATIONS

Nothing to Disclose

I would like to begin by stating that I have no financial, professional, or personal conflicts of interest to disclose in connection with this presentation.

The content and opinions expressed herein are my own and are provided for educational and informational purposes only. They do not necessarily reflect the official views, policies, or positions of the Polish Genealogical Society of Minnesota or any affiliated organizations.

While every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy and reliability of the information presented, attendees are encouraged to conduct their own research and verify sources, especially when applying findings to personal genealogical work.

Something to Disclose

I would like to disclose that I [insert your specific disclosure here—e.g., "am a member of the board of the Polish Genealogical Society," "receive funding from XYZ organization," or "have published research related to this topic"]. This affiliation has not influenced the content or conclusions of this presentation.

The views and opinions expressed are my own and are presented for educational and informational purposes only. They do not necessarily reflect the official positions or policies of the Polish Genealogical Society of Minnesota or any other affiliated institutions.

While care has been taken to ensure the accuracy of the material presented, I encourage all attendees to conduct their own research and verify sources, particularly when applying genealogical methods or historical interpretations to personal family history.
